About The Deptford Challenge Trust

The Deptford Challenge Trust (DCT) is a grant-making charitable trust that aims to improve the quality of life for people who live and work in a defined area of Lewisham, that covers Deptford and parts of New Cross (please see the map on the DCT website). DCT started out as part of the national City Challenge regeneration programme in the mid-1990s. In partnership with Goldsmiths University the Deptford City Challenge (as it was then known) invested part of the funding it was given in student accommodation. The Trust was set up, and through this rental income it has been able to provide grants to voluntary and community organisations for activities which benefit residents within the DCT area for almost 20 years. The Trust's grantmaking programmes are managed by The London Community Foundation.

Following a strategic review in 2016 the Trustees replaced the Small Grant and Strategic Grant Programmes with this fund, the Open Programme. The ethos of both these historic funds will remain and the DCT will continue to support small and new organisations through the provision of 'seedcorn' funding as well as encourage the strategic development of the DCT area and the organisations working within it.

Fund Themes

Organisations are invited to apply for funding to deliver work against the following themes. The Trustees welcome applications for projects which work with residents of any age, gender and ethnic background.

1. Education and skills – helping those who need extra support to either stay in education or return to it later in life;
2. Community cohesion and social inclusion - celebrating the diversity of the DCT area and welcoming new arrivals into the community.

3. Health & wellbeing – improving the wellbeing of all residents, in particular those with a physical disability, learning difficulty or mental health problem;
 4. Strengthening the DCT area – building capacity and connecting local organisations, creating a stronger, more resilient voluntary and community sector.

Living Wage Funder

The London Community Foundation is a Living Wage Funder. This scheme, run by the Living Wage Foundation, means that The London Community Foundation aims to pay all grant-funded staff posts at or above the real Living Wage (currently £10.75 per hour in London).

What does this mean for applicants?

If you are applying for funding for any staff costs (this could include existing staff members, sessional workers, part time or full-time posts, freelance workers), you should budget these at the real Living Wage or above. We are sensitive to circumstances where organisations feel that taking up the Living Wage would cause difficulties; in these instances, please explain the circumstances in the Living Wage section of the application form. You can find out more about The Living Wage Funder Scheme by clicking here: <https://www.livingwage.org.uk/living-wage-funders>
